Next half term our school value is Integrity

Dear Parents & Carers,

It is lovely to be back in school this week, with the bluebells out and making daisy chains with KS1. The children really enjoyed being allowed to spread out onto the field. We were visited on Thursday by an advisor from Herts for Learning looking at how we can further develop our lunchtimes. We know that, particularly for the younger children, they will have missed out during the lockdowns, on learning to play games with larger groups. Just to prove the point, as we walked around, there were a number of children that came up to us to say they didn't know what to do or play. The Midday Supervisors have been training and working hard to change our lunchtimes and to begin to run structured games and activities that the children can learn. One thing that we do need is more play equipment and so we will be looking at ways to fund this.

We welcomed Miss Sinnott and Mr Yates back after a beautiful wedding day, I'm sure that most of you have seen this photo on our Facebook page.

Ms Ruprai has spent a happy few hours sorting out the new resources for our phonics scheme Little Wandle which will start being used very soon.

There were not too many work projects happening this holiday, the programme of renewing and updating fuse boards and electrical works started and a leak repaired. Mr Street also came in and painted various areas around the school, with help from Mrs Dunlop's daughter. We are still looking for tins of magnolia paint if you have any half-finished tins that you are looking to rehome.

This term we are looking forward to a gradual return to whole school assemblies in the hall, Jubilee themed meals in the dining room, sports days, open evenings and my bungee jump. If you are able to sponsor me just a little then click on this link. https://www.justgiving.com/crowdfunding/sponsored-bungee-jump?utm_term=JNGMv8Kna

This term the children will be learning about and practicing integrity as our half term's value. We will be focussing on why we do 'the right thing' and how important it is to do this even when no one is watching. You can follow this theme up at home by creating 'what would you do if...' cards and discuss the dilemmas as a family. What would you do if you found out where your parents keep your Christmas presents?

Reminders:

- If your child is going to be picked up by someone else, please inform the office. Thank you.
- When on school property, please make sure that you and your children walk scooters and bikes through the grounds.
- It is important to us that we are able to address parent/carer concerns, please ensure that you bring these to the class teacher or the office and do not approach children directly.
- Please be considerate of local residents and follow the Highway Code by not parking on yellow lines outside of the school and across people's drives.
