

Science Long Term Overview 2022 - 2023

|           | Autumn                         |                                | Spring                                 |             | Summer                                 |  |
|-----------|--------------------------------|--------------------------------|--|-------------|--|--|
| Y1/2A | Animals includingHumans    |                                | Materials                              |             | Plants                                 | Living Thingsand theirHabitats |
| 3         | Rocks andSoils             | AnimalsincludingHumans | Forces                                 |             | Plants                                 | Light                                  |
| 4         | AnimalsincludingHumans | Sound                          | States of Matter                       |             | Living Thingsand TheirHabitats | Electricity                            |
| 5         | Forces                         | Space                          | Properties and Changes inMaterials |             | Living Thingsand theirHabitats | AnimalsincludingHumans         |
| 6         | Animals includingHumans    |                                | Light                                  | Electricity | Living Thingsand theirHabitats | Evolution andInheritance           |